OPERATIVE PROVISIONS

1 Definitions

---

In this deed:

Commencement Date means the date of this deed.

Confidential Information means any information of any kind whatsoever and whether in writing or not and whether identified as being confidential or not which is disclosed, or made available or accessible to the Recipient by or on behalf of the Discloser and which relates to the Discloser's business, or the business of any of the Discloser's related bodies corporate, including, without limitation, any trade secrets, know-how, data, documents, manuals, reports, systems, techniques, processes, equipment, business, concepts, technology, intellectual property, analysis, lists of actual or potential customers or partners, business or marketing plans, pricing, financial and accounting books, records and regulatory affairs.

2 The Recipient's obligations

- (a) The Recipient must:
- (i) treat and keep all Confidential Information in the strictest confidence, and take all necessary measures to protect the Confidential Information in order to comply with this clause;
  - (ii) not directly or indirectly disclose or make available howsoever all or any part of the Confidential Information to any third party without obtaining the prior written consent of the Discloser; and
  - (iii) not, except as expressly permitted by the Discloser in writing, reproduce or assist in the reproduction of, all or any part of, the Confidential Information.

- (b) The Recipient acknowledges that the Discloser may own intellectual property in the Confidential Information which it discloses. Nothing in this deed affects the ownership of existing or newly created intellectual property.

3 Exclusions

The obligations of confidence and non-use in this deed do not apply to any Confidential Information that:

- (a) was already in the Recipient's respective lawful possession at or before the time when it was disclosed to the Recipient as shown by documentary evidence existing at the time of the Disclosure;
- (b) is now or after this becomes publicly known but only where no breach of any obligation of confidence owed to the Discloser has occurred;
- (c) the Recipient receives from a third party who is lawfully in possession of such information and has the authority to disclose it or make it available to the Recipient;
- (d) is disclosed or made available by the Recipient in accordance with the written authority of the Discloser; or
- (e) is disclosed or made available pursuant to the demand of a lawful governmental or judicial authority provided that you must first notify the Discloser of the demand and only make such disclosure to the extent required by the demand.

4 Term and termination

- (a) This Deed commences on the Commencement Date and the Recipient's rights to access or to use any Confidential Information will cease when the Discloser requests the return of the Confidential Information pursuant to clause 5.
- (b) Despite clause 5 and except as otherwise provided, the obligations of confidence and non-use contained in this deed survive termination or expiration of this deed.

5 Return of Confidential Information

- (a) The original and all copies of Confidential Information and all materials embodying any Confidential Information, must at the election of the Discloser be returned to the Discloser or destroyed and, if applicable, permanently and, to the extent technically possible to do so, irretrievably deleted from any and all storage media (digital or electronic or otherwise), immediately upon demand.
- (b) The Recipient may retain Confidential Information to the extent that this is necessary for compliance with statutory, regulatory or professional obligations or standards, provided that all content which is not strictly necessary for the purposes of such compliance is completely and, to the extent technically possible, irreversibly, redacted.

6 No rights conferred

- (a) Neither this deed nor the disclosure of any Confidential Information under this deed grants or must be deemed to grant any licence or right to the Recipient to use the Confidential Information or the intellectual property of the Discloser except as specifically provided in this deed.
- (b) Nothing in this deed constitutes a binding commitment on the part of either party to enter into any further agreement with the other party.

7 Severability

If any provision of this deed is void, voidable, unenforceable or illegal, that provision will be read down so as to be valid and enforceable or, alternatively, will be severed from this deed. The severance of any provision in accordance with this clause will not affect the validity or effectiveness of the remaining provisions of this deed.

8 Indemnity

The Recipient indemnifies and agrees to keep the Discloser and (if applicable) its director(s), officer(s), employees, agents and contractors (Indemnified) fully indemnified from and against all costs, expenses, damages and loss (Losses) whatsoever, whether direct, indirect or consequential, incurred or suffered by any of the Indemnified due to a breach of any provision of this deed by the Recipient or the acts or omissions of any of the Recipient's director(s), officer(s), employees, contractors or agents (as applicable) or any other person for whom the Recipient is responsible, whether such Losses arise in contract, tort (including, without limitation, negligence), in equity, at law or under statute.

9 Governing law

The interpretation, construction and effect of this deed must be governed and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of New South Wales and the parties submit to the jurisdiction of the courts exercising jurisdiction in that territory and the courts of appeal from that jurisdiction.
